

I'm Syamala, an MPhil student in the MML Faculty, studying European, Latin American and Comparative Literatures and Cultures. I specialise in modern German and French literature and thought, graduating from the MML Tripos last year. I care deeply about the life and future of our faculty alongside the other departments in the Arts and Humanities, and would be delighted to be your Graduate Representative. I'll help in any way I can regarding issues with the courses, collaboration between departments, teaching and other academic activities, and am an organised and approachable person. I have a sound understanding of the undergraduate Tripos and can appreciate the transition to graduate life, and, given my strong interdisciplinary interests, in literature, music, language and culture, I'm well-equipped to liaise with MPhil and PhD students across departments.
