Brief statement for the information of voters:

My name is Michael Denham, and I am running to serve as your graduate representative to the Council of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences. As an MPhil student in Health, Medicine, and Society, my coursework and research interests integrate multiple disciplines across this school's various departments. With your support, I would like to strengthen those interdisciplinary bonds between departments while expressing a much-needed student voice in council deliberations.